Los Angeles Congregation

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come” (Matthew 24:14).

Since the days of the original Apostles the true gospel as it is written in the Bible has become a rare commodity. Many falsely believe the gospel is being preached by the many ministers in the world today but Jesus told us a few verses earlier that many false prophets would rise in the last days and deceive many

(Matthew 24:3-5, 11). Therefore, verse 14 quoted above (the gospel being preached), will be fulfilled by a small minority of preachers in the midst of a spiritually starved world. The Prophet informed us of this condition saying, “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord:

(Amos 8:11).”

It was a blessing therefore, when Brother Elisha, Sister Loretta and myself received a warm welcome from our Los Angeles brothers and sisters at the opening of our new congregation on 9/3/05. People came from LA and many suburbs to hear the gospel at the Clarion Hotel, near LAX. (By the way, Clarion means “to make clear” and this we did and will continue to do in LA and beyond, if the Lord allow.) Our LA turnout shows the hunger people have for the truth.

We pray that the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will continue to bless the people of LA with a heart to seek and do his will, just as he has blessed our local congregation in Gary, Indiana. We all know it’s a challenge to serve God in the midst of a lost world, therefore continue to pray for each other and pray for me and the other evangelists, who are endeavoring this great work. Peace!

Through Our Lord Jesus Christ We Have Received The Atonement

The Apostle Paul wrote, in his epistle to the Romans that, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23) In the same epistle, he also wrote that, "The wage of sin is death." (Romans 6:23) So if all men have sinned and the wage of sin is death, all mankind is worthy of eternal damnation. However, God, in his omniscience, made it possible for the penalty or wage for sin to be paid. This atonement, which can be defined as the act of paying the penalty for sin, was made when Jesus gave his life for us. This is what we commemorate, when we observe the Day of Atonement.

Before the coming of Jesus, on the Day of Atonement, the high priest would take two goats and present them before the Lord. In Leviticus 16 it is written, "8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the Lord, and the other for the scapegoat. 9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the Lord's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering. 10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the Lord, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness." These two goats represented Jesus. The sin offering signified his death, while the live goat, released into the wilderness, represented Jesus' resurrection. Isaiah prophesied about Jesus paying the price, or making atonement as a sin offering for us, when he wrote, "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes are we healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:5,6) Jesus made his soul an offering for sin.

Though the death of Jesus was sufficient to make man's reconciliation possible, he also had to be resurrected so that we can be saved. Paul also wrote to the Romans, 5:9 "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. 10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. 11 AND NOT ONLY SO, BUT WE ALSO JOY IN GOD THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, BY WHOM WE HAVE RECEIVED THE ATONEMENT."

So how do we observe the Day of Atonement in our days? In Leviticus 23, all of the feasts of the Lord are listed. Concerning the Day of Atonement it is written, "27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Jesus is the offering by which we are sanctified once and for all so we do not sacrifice bulls and goats on this day. However, we are still commissioned not to work, but to afflict our souls. What does it mean to afflict your soul? This simply means to fast and abstain from your own pleasures. This affliction even signifies the suffering that Jesus went through to make the atonement.

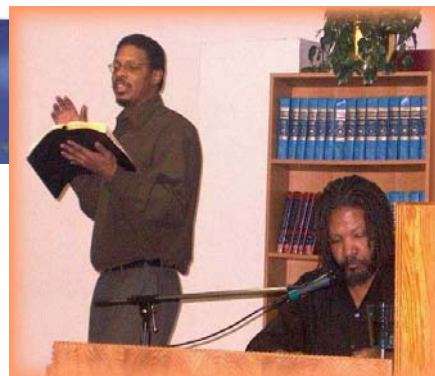

In conclusion, regardless of the fact that many people do not observe this very significant day, the Lord intended for this Sabbath to be observed forever. Leviticus 23:31 reads, "Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. 32 It shall be a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even to even, shall ye celebrate your Sabbath." There is even evidence that Paul commemorated this day, after the death of Jesus, and so should we. In Acts 27:9 it is written, "Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, 10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only the landing and ship, but also of our lives." So observe this holy day and commemorate the sacrifice that Jesus made, when he shed his blood for our sins. THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, WE HAVE RECEIVED THE ATONEMENT.

Israel, The Church of Jesus

Mission Statement

The entire Bible points to one simple reality, “Thy Kingdom Come”. The prophets and the disciples both looked forward to the day when God will set his Kingdom up on the earth. The death of Jesus opened the door of the Kingdom to those of us who believe. In the mean time, Jesus instructed us to pray for its fulfillment, ..”Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.” This is the gospel we preach.

We are aware that there are many churches claiming to preach the truth. Remember, the Bible tells us to prove all things. Jesus told us that in the last days many false prophets would come, and that they would deceive many. Therefore, it is expedient for us to make sure we are hearing and believing the gospel as it is written in the Holy Bible. There is only one gospel. Therefore, it is an error for us (the world) to have so many doctrines, denominations and faiths. Many people ask “what faith are you?” but the Bible declares, one Lord One Faith, one Baptism”. Brothers and sisters, there is only one way to please God and get into His Kingdom. It is outlined thoroughly from Genesis to Revelation.
