Spreading The Good News (Los Angeles Here We Come!)

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come” (Matthew 24:14). Just as the awesome God has declared it and had it written, so shall it be done. Yes, in the midst of: Wars and rumors of wars, mounting starvation and diseases, earthquakes and hurricanes and even many false prophets, God will and already is spreading the good news across the globe. It won’t be long until all people are around this wicked world hear the gospel of “thy kingdom come”. They will hear that Jesus is returning to establish a kingdom on earth (there is no rapture and you are not going to heaven.). They will hear that believers must repent and keep his commandments to enter this glorious kingdom (grace does not void our service to God).

How the gospel is received is another matter but hear it they will. Though Gods’ plans for the end of the world are written in the bible, this gospel is still a new message to the world as a whole. Why? For the bible also states that Satan has deceived the whole world and blinded the minds of people through many false prophets and false doctrines (gospels). You are truly blessed if you see through the confusion and have “ears to hear”. However, if you don’t heed this end-time preaching the message will be a witness against you. No you won’t be able to stand before God at judgment and claim you never heard the truth.

Those preaching the gospel must be committed because the world is contrary to God and His message. The worlds of Jesus still ring true, “Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves (Matthew 10:16)...” Therefore, let those who the Lord is calling to get this work gird up. For, in spite of all the adverse conditions, go forth we must. Get ready the time draweth nigh!

Through Our Lord Jesus Christ, We Have Received the Atonement

The Apostle Paul wrote in his epistle to the Romans that, "all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). In this same epistle, he also wrote that, "the wage of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). So, if all men have sinned and the wage of sin is death, all mankind is worthy of eternal damnation. However, God in his omniscience made it possible for the penalty or wage for sin to be paid. This atonement, which can be defined as the act of paying the penalty for sin, was made when Jesus gave his life for us. This is what we commemorate when we observe the Day of Atonement.

Before the coming of Jesus, on the Day of Atonement the high priest would take two goats and present them before the Lord. In Leviticus 16 it is written, "8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the Lord, and the other for the scapegoat. 9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the Lord's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering. 10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the Lord, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness." These two goats represented Jesus. The sin offering signified his death, while the live goat that was released into the wilderness represented the resurrection of Jesus. Isaiah prophesied about Jesus paying the price, or making atonement as a sin offering for us when he wrote, 53:5 "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes are we healed. 6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. 10 Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: WHEN THOU SHALT MAKE HIS SOUL AN OFFERING FOR SIN, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

Though the death of Jesus was sufficient to make man's reconciliation possible, he also had to be resurrected so that we can be saved. Paul also wrote to the Romans, 5:9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. 11 AND NOT ONLY SO, BUT WE ALSO JOY IN GOD THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, BY WHOM WE HAVE RECEIVED THE ATONEMENT.

In Leviticus 23, all of the feasts of the Lord are listed. Concerning the Day of Atonement it is written, "27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord". Jesus is the offering by which we are sanctified once and for all so we do not sacrifice bulls and goats on this day. However, we are still not to do any work as well afflict our souls. What does it mean to afflict your soul? This simply means to fast, or abstain from food and drink, on this day. This affliction even signifies the suffering that Jesus went through to make the atonement.

Regardless of the fact that many people do not observe this very significant day, The Lord intended for this Sabbath to be observed forever. Leviticus 23:31 reads, "Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. 32 It shall be a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your Sabbath." There is evidence that Paul commemorated this day after the death of Jesus, and so should we. In Acts 27:9 it is written, "Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, 10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only the lading and ship, but also of our lives." So observe this Sabbath and commemorate the sacrifice that Jesus made, when he shed his blood for our sins.

Israel, The Church of Jesus

Mission Statement

The entire Bible points to one simple reality, “Thy Kingdom Come”. The prophets and the disciples both looked forward to the day when God will set his Kingdom up on the earth. The death of Jesus opened the door of the Kingdom to those of us who believe. In the mean time, Jesus instructed us to pray for its fulfillment, ..”Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.” This is the gospel we preach.

We are aware that there are many churches claiming to preach the truth. Remember, the Bible tells us to prove all things. Jesus told us that in the last days many false prophets would come, and that they would deceive many. Therefore, it is expedient for us to make sure we are hearing and believing the gospel as it is written in the Holy Bible. There is only one gospel. Therefore, it is an error for us (the world) to have so many doctrines, denominations and faiths. Many people ask “what faith are you?” but the Bible declares, one Lord One Faith, one Baptism”. Brothers and sisters, there is only one way to please God and get into His Kingdom. It is outlined thoroughly from Genesis to Revelation.
